BETTER BE A BACHELOR.

When the Rev. J. William Lee, pastor of the Kain Avenue Jersey City, Methodist Episcopal church, declared that a man had better remain a bachelor than wed a long-tongued wife, to say that he created a sensation among the members of his congregation is putting it very mildly indeed. Rev. Lee had on previous Sunday nights preached on "The Model Lover," and "The Model Husband," so Sunday a week ago he chose the subject of his sermon "The Model Wife." It was in the course of his sermon Rev. Lee said: "God took a rib from man's side and from it formed a woman, and thus created a vacuum in man's life that nothing but a sweet woman can fill. Wives you remember your wedding day. You remember the high resolves and ideals. How do they look through the telescope of years?"

"A model wife acknowledges her husband's authority in general affairs, but realizes she must be the head of the house. I do not mean a boss—a political boss is despicable, an ecclesiastical boss contemptible, but from a boss in petticoats, good Lord, deliver us."

"To maintain the position of the model wife she must make home attractive. If the walls are festooned with cobwebs, if the carpet contains samples of everything cooked for a month, if the table linen looks as though soap were $10 a cake, then I charge the wives with driving their husbands away from home. Such a home is the open door to the saloon. If some of the wives would put the same energy into their housework that they do into gossip and gadding, many saloons would be vacant. Better to be a bachelor, a thousand times so, than to be tied to a long-tongued, ball-bearing-jawed wife."

"A girl may be able to embroider or paint a sunset, but when Esau comes home from work hungry he wants a good dinner and if it is not ready he will sell his wife's right for a mess of cold lunch pottage at a saloon bar."

"Many a man has been strangled by a rope of his wife's fine lace. I pity the man who after marriage finds that all he has to show for his marriage fee is a dress form, a medicine chest and a whining voice. A whining, fault-finding wife is worse than a fit of chills and fever. I don't wonder men drink whiskey to get over the attack."

A FIELD FOR IRRIGATION ENTERPRISE.

If the plans of the company recently formed for the purpose of constructing a series of reservoirs and canals are carried out some 30,000 acres of land situated in the Fountain valley south of Colorado Springs will be reclaimed and brought under cultivation. This project is but a sample of what may be done by men of enterprise and means in many different parts of the "arid regions" and New Mexico offers a great field for just this sort of enterprise.

It is the intention of the Colorado company to bring the area under irrigation and adapt it to the cultivation of sugar beets. If this is done one can readily see how the 30,000 acres can be made to support a large population as it is a well established fact that in sugar beet culture the grower does not need a large acreage. Careful attention to a small acreage has proved the most remunerative.

In the so-called "arid region" the work of reclamation of the vast acreages is of greatest importance and there are so many localities where enterprises, similar to the Fountain valley project, can be successfully carried out, that the attention of public spirited men should be called to them. The Great Southwest should not forget for a moment the colonization feature nor the fact that while we of the west are familiar enough with the question, yet the farmer of the East and the Middle West knows little of irrigated agriculture and is disposed to shrink from it at first. Eastern people must be induced to take advantage of the opportunities offered for the establishment of homes on irrigated land. Colonization is necessary. In no case should this be neglected by associations engaged in the reclaiming of large tracts of arid land.

PRINCIPLES NOT POLICIES ARE IMMUTABLE.

There is a beautiful sentiment in the boast of having been a life long Republican, a life long Democrat, a life long Populist, a life long Greenbacker, or a life long something else, but at times this boast merely hides an old fossil who could not change his mind even if he wanted to. The man who believes the same things at thirty that he did at twenty is not making much advancement; the man who at forty holds the same view-points that he did at thirty must have lived in the backwoods; the man who at forty is not more tolerant of other men's opinions than he was at forty, has made a partial failure of life. In the formative period of this republic, when different parties stood for ideals and principles very much divergent, partisanship meant much more than today when parties only differ in the policies they advocate and all parties believe or should believe in upholding this government for the people and by the people; when political ideals and principles are almost unified and differences exist only as to the best methods and means to strengthen further this great republic, to make it more prosperous and to make the enforcement of its laws more just. President Roosevelt has found it necessary in his comparatively brief political life to vote and to speak against men of his own party and it is rather a favorable sign that men do their own thinking instead of voting for a party ticket because their grandfathers belonged to the party whose name the ticket may bear. Not that the New Mexican advocates that lukewarm, wishy-washy, non-partisanship of the anti-imperialists or civil service reformers but that it can readily understand why a man who was a Democrat eight or ten years ago can be a good Republican today and probably a better Republican than the average for once having been a Democrat; and that a man who is a Republican today may be a Democrat ten years hence. Party policies are no longer immutable as the progress of protection principles in Great Britain shows, and the Republican of today may be asked to advocate quite different policies twenty years hence than he is defending today.

New Mexico Republicans are not divided upon the question of Mr. Roosevelt's nomination. In fact they stand united for him.

The output of New Mexico's coal mines is steadily on the increase and more such mines are being worked than ever before. New Mexico is advancing quite satisfactorily. There is no boom but the progress of the Territory is of a solid and substantial character.

The conscience of nations, with the exception of the United States, is no better and of no higher standard than it was centuries ago. European and Asiatic governments grab all they can and keep all they grab. Russia will not give up Manchuria and Japan will have Korea. The inhabitants of these countries have nothing to say. It is now as it has been for thousands of years. Might rules and armies and navies are powerful factors in governmental and political affairs.

King Edward VII has a very soft side for the United States. Georgia watermelons, Colorado cantaloupes and New York apples were served at his table during the past summer. Now if he will commence to eat New Mexico fruit, especially such as is raised in the Santa Fe valley, in and about Roswell, the Mesilla valley and in San Juan county, he will become still better pleased with the American ways. The king is proving quite a sensible fellow in his old age.

One or two Democratic newspapers sneeringly emphasize that Judge W. H. Pope is a Democrat. The New Mexican does not know what Judge Pope calls himself but it does know that he is not the man who would have asked the endorsement of the Republican leaders of this Territory nor would have asked the appointment from the President of the United States to the supreme bench of New Mexico, if he was not fully in accord with the administration and the policies for which it stands. Judge Pope is not the man who will shed his political coat for the sake of an office nor is he a weather-vane who turns whatever direction a party wind may be blowing.

Tammany leaders claim that the disintegration of the anti-Tammany force in New York is complete and that the Tammany ticket, headed by George B. McClellan for mayor, is sure of election. Of course, all things are possible in Gotham, but decent and patriotic people all over the country hope that the voters of New York will not again saddle upon that city the Tammany regime. Despite all protestation and promises of good behavior, Tammany has never in its history acted honestly or justly in the administration of New York City affairs when it was in power. No matter what the name of its candidate for mayor, were he to be elected, corruption and dishonesty would again flourish in Gotham municipal affairs as they have done in all Tammany city administrations.

Dyspepsia AND Liver Disease CURED BY DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

"I was weak, nervous and dizzy, with a fainting sensation when walking," writes Jesse Childress, Esq., of Samuel, Sullivan Co. Tenn. "I could not walk any distance, always felt bad after eating; felt as though something was sticking in my throat, always uneasiness in stomach. Doctored with three physicians but they did not relieve me. I grew worse and used everything I could think of; was nearly ready to give up and then some one told me that Dr. Pierce's medicine was good, so I began taking his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I have taken seven bottles of that now and am as stout as ever, and enjoying health as much as ever before. I worked all summer and this winter as much as any one. My case was liver disease and nervous dyspepsia of which your medicine has cured me. In September 1903 my weight was about 65 pounds, now it is 135. Please accept my sincere thanks."

According to the Denver papers, the 2,250 coal miners of New Mexico will probably be called out on a strike next week which may last some time. However, the Colorado Fuel and Iron company has promised an advance in wages and claims that but a small minority of its miners are union men and that the strike will not be serious at any of its mines for the men are not at all in sympathy with the labor agitators.

The report comes from Washington that the statehood movement for New Mexico is again to be defeated and that the Fifty-eighth Congress will be found opposed to it. This may be so, but even if so, it is no good reason for giving up the fight. Quite the reverse, it should be continued and fought to a finish in this coming session and if it must be so, it should be re-opened in the Fifty-ninth Congress. Fight it out until success is attained, is the motto of this paper.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED.

Some Santa Fe People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them. You can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

Ruperto Martinez of Griffin st., says: "While getting out stone for a railroad, I was holding the drill and was engaged in other work particularly hard on the hands. Mine were completely used up. I could scarcely handle anything, in fact it was difficult to use a spoon at the table. I had a box of Doan's Ointment with me which I had procured at Ireland's Pharmacy, and it struck me that it could not do any harm and it might at least help. I applied it and the relief obtained was magical. If every one receives as much benefit from the use of Doan's Ointment as I the preparation will prove of untold value in this vicinity."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
